WINSTON & STRAWN LLP

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT

Steve Grimes Joins Panel on Trade Secrets Protection, Enforcement, and Litigation

JUNE 21, 2018

On June 21 in Chicago, Partner Steve Grimes, co-leader of Winston's Global Privacy and Data Security Task Force, spoke at Sandpiper Partners' 2nd Annual Trade Secrets Protection, Enforcement, and Litigation Conference. Steve joined the panel discussion on best practices for protecting trade secrets, what to do after a theft has occurred, and enforcement.

The event covered the following:

- Effective Responses when a Trade Secret Theft Occurs
- DTSA Case Developments, Interpretations, Lessons for Business
- Proactive Steps to Protect Trade Secrets
- Developing Litigation Case Strategy
- Damages and the Impact of Recent Cases
- Case Studies: Waymo, Emerson Electric
- Cyber Security Issues

Steve's practice focuses on compliance and data security counseling, sensitive internal investigations, government interactions, and complex litigation. He provides practical and tailored advice to companies and Boards seeking to build, improve, and defend compliance programs.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Chicago

Related Capabilities

Privacy & Data Security

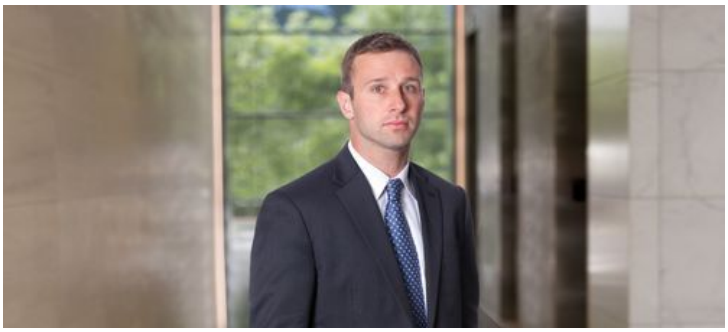
Compliance Programs

Antitrust/Competition

Trade Secrets, Non Competes & Restrictive Covenants

Government Program Fraud, False Claims Act & Qui Tam Litigation

Related Professionals



Steven Grimes

© 2024 Winston & Strawn LLP.