WINSTON & STRAWN LLP

WEBINAR

Understanding Trade Secret Laws

MARCH 19, 2019

Join a panel of cross-functional Winston & Strawn LLP trade secrets lawyers for a four-part webinar series.

The first webinar in this series, "Understanding Trade Secret Laws," took place on March 19th, and included:

- an overview of trade secret law in the United States;
- highlights of recent civil and criminal trade secret cases;
- cautionary tales derived from recent trade secret surveys and cases;
- practical guidance for protecting trade secrets; and
- predictions of things to come relating to trade secret law.

Save the Date
The upcoming webinars will feature different speakers from multiple Winston offices and practice groups, and will cover the following topics:

June - International trade secret issues, including an overview of the EU directive and laws in China, Korea, Japan, and Taiwan

September - Criminal issues relating to trade secret theft, including an overview of the types of criminal cases the Department of Justice has pursued, the pros/cons of referring a trade secret matter to law enforcement, and special considerations when investigating trade secret theft

December - Litigation considerations relating to trade secrets, including types of available damages, how to craft injunctive relief, and interesting developments/trends from 2019

1 Min Read

Related Capabilities

Trade Secrets, Non Competes & Restrictive Covenants

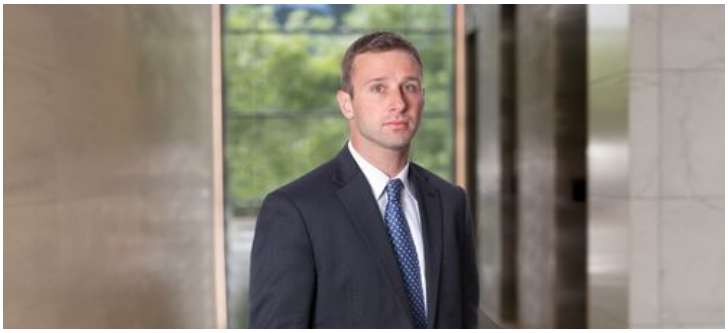
Privacy & Data Security

Compliance Programs

Related Regions

Asia

Related Professionals



Steven Grimes

Aviva Grumet-Morris

© 2024 Winston & Strawn LLP.