SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT

John Rosenthal Speaks at 2018 ABA National Institute on eDiscovery

MAY 18, 2018

John Rosenthal, chair of Winston & Strawn's eDiscovery & Information Governance Practice, spoke at the American Bar Association's 12th Annual National Institute on eDiscovery, held in Chicago on May 18, 2018.

John hosted a Case Law Update, which was a curated review of timely updates in eDiscovery case law. Additional conference topics included:

- Careful what you wish for: protecting data security in discovery
- Judicial perspectives: reasonableness, proportionality, and sanctions
- A new E.U. framework: internal investigations, discovery, and data protection rules
- Perfect timing: the right time to release legal holds
- Seeing the forest through the trees: protecting privilege in complex discovery
- Inside the black box: search, artificial intelligence, and ethics

John has expansive experience in all areas of electronic discovery, privacy, information governance, and data breach. He represents clients in an array of complex antitrust and litigation matters.
