Meg is co-chair of Winston's Private Investment Funds Practice and concentrates her practice on private equity fund formations and investments. Meg leads fund formation matters for buyout, debt, secondary, venture, real estate, and other funds.

Meg's experience includes structuring and forming private equity, real estate, distressed and mezzanine funds, hedge funds, fund of funds, single investor funds, and secondary funds. She also focuses on representing clients in purchases and sales of secondary interests in private funds.

Meg represents clients in venture capital financings, buyouts, private placements, joint ventures, acquisitions, divestitures, compliance with exemptions under the Investment Company Act and general corporate matters. She also advises institutional investors—with a special focus on financial institutions—investing in private equity, real estate, and hedge funds.
