Kimball is recognized as one of the “Top 100 Trial Lawyers” in the United States by Benchmark Litigation US. He concentrates his practice in the areas of antitrust, patent infringement, class actions, and professional liability litigation.

Having tried cases over a range of issues for more than 40 years, Kimball focuses his practice on complex commercial matters, with specific prowess in consumer class actions, patent litigation, and antitrust investigations. According to a client, “he’s an excellent trial lawyer, he’s able to solve the most difficult problems, and he’s a real go-to guy when you have challenges above and beyond the norm.”

Kimball is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers. Fellowship in the American College is extended only by invitation after careful investigation, to those experienced trial lawyers who have mastered the art of trial advocacy, and whose professional careers have been marked by the highest standards of ethical conduct, professionalism, civility, and collegiality. He has tried many complex commercial cases to verdict in state and federal courts around the country, and has argued many cases before the federal courts of appeals, including two arguments before the United States Supreme Court.

Kimball is involved in alternative dispute resolution as an advocate, arbitrator, and mediator. He is a “Distinguished Neutral” for the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution, the country’s leading nonprofit alternative dispute-resolution organization. He has been recommended in Euromoney’s Guide to the World’s Leading Experts in Commercial Arbitration. He has also served as an expert witness in professional responsibility matters.

Kimball served for many years as Winston & Strawn's General Counsel and as a member of the firm's Executive Committee.
