

Winston Pro Bono and Winston For Good Collaborate to Help Migrants File for Asylum

DECEMBER 8, 2023

As part of the firm's ongoing response to the unprecedented migrant crisis in Chicago, Winston attorneys and professional staff teamed up to help 10 migrants, who had been bussed to Chicago after crossing the southern border, to file for asylum.

Members of Winston for Good's newly created Compañeros Corps served as interpreters for our pro bono clients, while Winston attorneys helped them complete their applications for asylum.

“This asylum clinic, which we conducted with the National Immigrant Justice Center, demonstrates the power of collaboration between Winston attorneys and professional staff. Together, we were able to help 10 people take the first step towards permanently escaping devastating situations and establishing a new life in the United States. Thank you to the attorneys and professional staff who devoted a full day to this highly impactful endeavor,” said Maria Kutnick, Pro Bono Counsel.

Winston attorneys who assisted asylum seekers in completing their application included Matt DaSanto, Jess Diedrich, Pat Doyle, Tim Kincaid, Eleni Kouimelis, Jack Lenske, Ari Levy, Natalie Holden, Elise LeCrone, Kurt Mathas, Oriana Pietrangelo, Olga Pototskaya, Ivan Poullaos, Maggie Rick, Matthew Rosen, Jack Shea, Emma Sutton, and Del Todd.

Winston for Good Compañeros Corps members who served as interpreters included Maria Cesar, Raul Contreras, Stephanie De La Rosa, Patty Garza, Lena Marquez, and Alex Rodriguez.

Learn more about Winston’s commitment to excellence in serving the public interest.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Chicago

Related Topics

Pro Bono

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)

Winston For Good

Asylum

Related Professionals

Matt DalSanto

Jessica Diedrich

Patrick Doyle

Timothy Kincaid

Eleni Kouimelis

Jack O. Lenske

Ari Levy

Natalie Holden

Elise M. LeCrone

Kurt Mathas

Oriana Pietrangelo

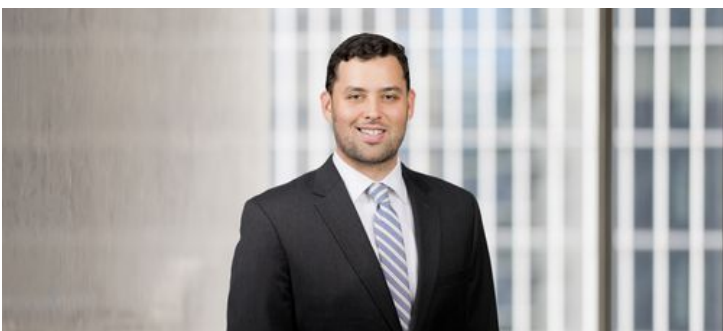

Olga Pototskaya

Ivan Poullaos

Maggie Rick

Matthew Rosen

Jack Shea

Emma Sutton

Delilah Todd