

CFPB Compliance and Risk Assessment: What You Need to Know Now

OCTOBER 31, 2013

Winston & Strawn hosted an eLunch titled “CFPB Compliance and Risk Assessment: What You Need to Know Now ” on Thursday, October 31, 2013 at 1:15 – 2:45 p.m. (Eastern). Soon after it was created under Dodd-Frank, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (“CFPB”) began actively enforcing consumer financial protection laws against expected market participants: credit card issuers and debt collectors. More recently, it has expanded its enforcement purview to include some unexpected vendors supporting those services, such as payment processors and administrative support providers for companies and law firms offering debt relief services.

Winston & Strawn partner Jack Cobb presented this interactive webinar.

An eLunch is a complimentary, interactive seminar where participants watch and listen to a presentation given by Winston & Strawn attorneys over the Internet.

Clients and friends of the firm are invited to attend seminars and events. We reserve the right to limit attendance at any firm event.

NOTE: CLE credit is not available for listening to our pre-recorded eLunch or webinar briefings.
