

Yuanda Winston Recognized in Chambers Greater China 2022

JANUARY 12, 2022

The Chambers Greater China Region Guide 2022 has recognized Winston's strategic alliance partner in Shanghai, Yuanda China Law Offices, as a Tier-1 PRC firm in the Corporate Investigations/Anti-Corruption category for the fifth year in a row. Managing Partner John Huang is also recognized as an "Eminent Practitioner" and Partner Leon Liu is listed as a top-tier lawyer in this field. The publication praises the team for its "impressive track record of acting on various corporate investigations and implementing internal compliance programs."

The publication also ranks Partner Carol Sun as an "Up and Coming" leader in data protection & privacy practice, noting her "wealth of experience in handling data protection and regulatory compliance for both Chinese and international clients."

Yuanda China Law Offices combines first-hand knowledge of China's legal, political and regulatory environment with global experience in areas of particular importance for Chinese entities and global companies doing business in China. Its investigation team of highly regarded legal professionals, who have previously served as judges, prosecutors, and police officers, have a thorough understanding of Chinese Anti-Corruption laws and practices. The team also works closely with leading multinationals, including many Fortune 500 companies, to effectively manage anti-corruption and U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act risks.

Chambers' Greater China Region Guide offers the most comprehensive and in-depth market analysis and rankings of the leading law firms and professionals across all four jurisdictions of the Greater China Region and features five existing chapters: China (International Firms), Hong Kong Bar, China (PRC Firms), China Macau, and Taiwan.
