

Recent Legislative Acts in China Have Placed Multinationals With Operations in China in a Tenuous Position

FEBRUARY 24, 2022

A cross-border team of Winston & Strawn White Collar and Regulatory attorneys discusses the recent legislative acts in China, which have placed multinationals with operations in China that comply with U.S. sanction laws in a tenuous position. In addition to addressing the flurry of legislative and regulatory activities, the briefing also examines the associated risks, including blacklisting, public relations crisis, and carbon copy prosecution.
