

Winston Recognized in 2022 IAM Patent 1000 Rankings

JULY 5, 2022

Winston & Strawn's Intellectual Property Practice has been recognized by the 2022 IAM Patent 1000 rankings.

Over the course of five months, IAM Patent 1000 conducted interviews to gather market intelligence on leading attorneys and firms in patent litigation. Those identified by market sources for exceptional skill sets and profound insights into patent matters are recognized in the IAM Patent 1000.

This year, Winston is one of 11 firms ranked Gold Tier nationally, and the firm's California, Washington, D.C., Texas, Illinois, North Carolina, and New York offices are ranked regionally. The Gold Tier ranking is reserved for firms that attract the most positive comments from sources with reputations established over time to secure the most high-profile and big-ticket instructions from clients.

Additionally, 20 Winston partners were listed as recommended attorneys in patent law.
