Winston Partners Named to 2022 Benchmark Litigation “40 & Under” List

JULY 29, 2022

Six Winston & Strawn partners have been recognized on the 2022 Benchmark Litigation “40 & Under” List. The annual list aims to recognize the best and brightest litigators under the age of 40 across the United States and Canada.

MIDWEST

Scott Ahmad is an experienced litigation partner whose practice focuses on mass tort / product liability cases, financial services litigation, and high-stakes commercial disputes. Scott is extraordinarily responsive to client needs, and provides direct, practical, and strategic advice across all of his matters.

Bryce Cooper is a trial lawyer who concentrates on complex commercial, products liability, and pharmaceutical patent litigation while doing extensive pro bono work and community service in Chicago.

Joe Motto is an experienced litigator in Winston & Strawn’s Securities Litigation Group with a practice focused on securities litigation, regulatory defense, and financial services litigation.

NORTHEAST

Matt Saxon represents clients in a range of commercial disputes focusing on multi-district litigations, products liability, and white collar criminal investigations. He also has considerable experience representing clients in copyright litigation, FCPA, breach of fiduciary duty, and unfair competition claims.

Angela Smedley focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation, leveraging insights from her federal court clerkship to defend financial services clients against individual and class actions across multiple jurisdictions. She also employs her years of sports litigation experience in representing professional sports unions and athletes in labor arbitrations, antitrust litigation, and complex disputes at the trial and appellate levels.

SOUTH

Katrina Eash is a trial lawyer who concentrates her practice in complex commercial, class action, and intellectual property litigation. She also has experience in high-risk employment litigation.
