

Maria Kostytska Contributes to Lexology's Getting the Deal Through – Enforcement of Foreign Judgments

AUGUST 28, 2023

Maria Kostytska, partner and English barrister, authored the latest guide on the enforcement of foreign judgments in the United Kingdom for Lexology's Getting the Deal Through.

This Q&A guide (and others to follow) showcases Winston's expertise in handling parallel proceedings for the enforcement of judgments and arbitral awards across multiple jurisdictions, including the United Kingdom, a global financial center through which transactions flow. In particular, this guide describes the requirements for enforcement of foreign judgments in the United Kingdom, including the possibility of enforcement against foreign states, while overcoming state immunity.

This Q&A article does not intend to serve as a substitute for legal advice, and you should consult with Maria Kostytska and English solicitors at Winston & Strawn for specific advice on your international dispute.

View the full guide.

1 Min Read

Author

Maria Kostytska

Related Capabilities

International Arbitration

Litigation/Trials

Related Regions

Europe

Related Professionals

Maria Kostytska