

Winston Legal Solutions Launch Covered in Multiple Media Outlets

APRIL 4, 2024

Winston & Strawn recently introduced Winston Legal Solutions, a competitive option for delivering transactional, litigation, and regulatory legal services targeted to routine legal tasks. This right-staffing model complements the firm's industry-leading eDiscovery, managed review, information governance, and trial support capabilities that now comprise Winston Legal Solutions.

In an interview with Legaltech News, John Rosenthal, chair of Winston's eDiscovery & Information Governance Practice, noted that law firm clients have become sophisticated purchasers of legal services in recent years and are ahead of law firms when it comes to their staffing and roles.

Winston Legal Solutions aims to address client cost concerns by providing an alternative to the outsourced legal provider marketplace that combines firm-trained attorneys, established processes, proven playbooks, a state-of-the-art technology stack, and generative AI tools.

The launch has been covered by the following media outlets:
