

Ronald Rothstein Named to BTI Client Service All-Stars 2016

FEBRUARY 9, 2016

Partner Ronald Rothstein was recognized by corporate counsel as a top pick for delivering stellar client service while working tough cases, earning a spot on the BTI Client Service All-Stars 2016 list.

The individuals recognized are the result of over 320 in-depth, independent interviews with legal decision makers at the world's leading organizations. No attorney can lobby to be added to the list—the only way to become an all-star is for corporate counsel to single out the attorney for client service exceeding all others.

Mr. Rothstein has substantial first-chair experience in complex commercial matters, including class action and Lanham Act false advertising, trademark and cybersquatting litigation, and copyright litigation. He has successfully handled numerous class action false advertising, trademark, and domain name cases in federal courts throughout the United States. He also represents clients before the National Advertising Division of the Better Business Bureaus in false advertising matters.
