Winston & Strawn's Washington, D.C. office—the first outside of Chicago—opened its doors in 1970. The office is home to 75+ attorneys, many of whom are nationally recognized and award-winning, with experience navigating clients through regulatory and enforcement issues as well as complicated governmental processes. Located in the center of the nation's capital, the D.C. office assists clients at the intersection of business, government, and law. We represent 75+ Fortune 500 companies and employ eight attorneys with prior government experience. The office also boasts a nationally ranked eDiscovery group known for providing a full-service practice.

Our D.C. attorneys and staff exhibit a strong commitment to supporting our local neighborhoods and charities, as well as to devoting pro bono hours to the underserved within our community. In 2022, our D.C. attorneys contributed 5,700+ pro bono hours. This dedication can also be seen through our partnership with the Sikh Coalition to ensure that Sikh-Americans can abide by their faith while serving in the U.S. Marine Corps.

Each summer, our D.C. office welcomes law students to learn from some of the nation's top litigators and regulatory attorneys. Our summer associates have toured the United States Supreme Court, socialized at casino and trivia nights, and explored the nation's capital via a boat excursion on the Potomac River.

“ I chose Winston because I wanted the opportunity to position myself as a go-to lawyer in a growing, dynamic appellate practice. ”

Lauren Gailey, Washington, D.C. Of Counsel
