

Winston & Strawn Contributor in Chambers' Global Litigation 2017 Practice Guide

APRIL 20, 2017

Winston & Strawn Partner Dan Webb served as contributing editors for Chambers & Partners' Litigation 2017 Global Practice Guide. In addition, Associates Daniel Meagher, Bibi Sarraf-Yazdi, and Suzanne Labi also contributed. The guide provides critical insights for lawyers and their clients on legal issues around the world particularly in the areas of international or cross-border litigation.

This book is a concise and pragmatic guide to the key features of different legal systems. It provides information about everything from statutes of limitations, to the requirements to commence proceedings, to how trials and appeals are conducted. The Guide also provides information about how different countries are responding to current trends in litigation, such as representative actions, punitive damages, litigation funding, injunctive relief, and alternative dispute resolution.

Learn more about the firm's Litigation Practice here.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Chicago

London

Related Topics

Chambers Global

Related Capabilities

Litigation/Trials

Commercial Litigation & Disputes

European Disputes, Regulatory & Compliance

Related Regions

North America

Europe

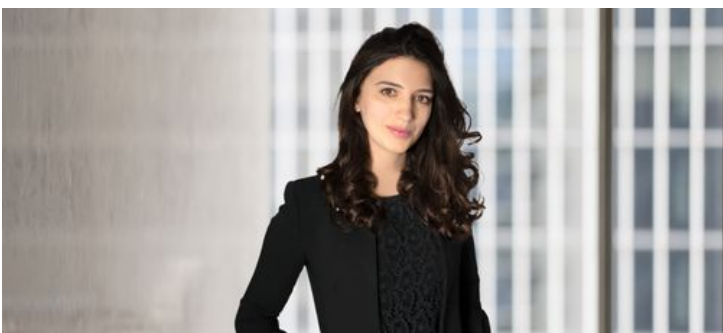

Related Professionals

Dan Webb

Daniel Meagher

Suzanne Labi