

Winston Welcomes Associate Class of 2014

OCTOBER 1, 2014

Winston & Strawn is pleased to welcome the new incoming class of 2014 on October 6. The annual firmwide New Associate Orientation will be held in Chicago, October 8-10. All new associates will travel to Chicago for the three-day orientation, which will include presentations by firm management, department chairs, program directors, and legal consultants. Discussion topics will include professional development, legal writing, firm economics, diversity, associate evaluations, and business development. The Chicago office will also host a welcome reception for the 2014 associate class.
