

Winston Participates in Dallas Volunteer Attorney Program Clinic

JULY 28, 2017

On July, 25, Winston's Dallas office participated in a pro bono legal aid clinic run by the Dallas Volunteer Attorney Program (DVAP), an organization that trains and supports volunteer attorneys to provide free legal assistance to low-income individuals. During the clinic, Winston attorneys and summer associates gathered information and provided advice to more than 40 people at or below the federal poverty line. The cases involved landlord tenant issues, tax-related issues, custody battles, probate questions, expunctions, divorce proceedings, and more. Some of those seeking legal advice lined up hours in advance for the clinic. These individuals were enormously thankful for a listening ear, practical legal advice, and the comfort of knowing the lawyers would follow up with them on their cases; the Winston team was humbled by and grateful for the opportunity to serve the Dallas community.

Back row (left to right): Greg McConnell, Grant Schmidt, Jackson Smith, Matt Stockstill, Michael Fechner, and Yang Wang. Front row (left to right): Rachel Koehn, Alex Wolens, Marc Lipscomb, and Lauren Crouch

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Dallas

Related Topics

Pro Bono

Related Regions

North America

This entry has been created for information and planning purposes. It is not intended to be, nor should it be substituted for, legal advice, which turns on specific facts.