

Scott Naidech Speaks at ACG New York's Private Funds Breakfast

OCTOBER 20, 2017

Winston & Strawn sponsored and Private Equity Partner Scott Naidech spoke at the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG) New York's SEC's Focus on Private Funds Westchester Breakfast on October 20, 2017. The event featured a panel discussion on the SEC's past focus on private funds, as well as other compliance and regulatory matters affecting private funds and their impact on funds in the healthcare, financial services, energy and infrastructure, and technology sectors. The panel discussed the following topics:

- SEC areas of focus prior to the new Chairman and potential changes going forward
- Other SEC areas of focus and actions
- Cybersecurity
- CCO liability/dual hatted CCOs
- How fund sponsors are adapting their business and compliance practices in light of these initiatives

Scott has extensive experience representing U.S. and non-U.S. private fund sponsors in the structuring, establishment, and operation of their funds. His clients include investment advisers and alternative asset managers based in the U.S. and across the globe, including Latin America and other emerging markets.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

New York

Related Capabilities

Private Investment Funds

Private Equity

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

---

Scott Naidech