

The Legal 500 Ranks Winston Among Top Tier Firms for Dispute Resolution in Switzerland for 2009

APRIL 20, 2009

Winston & Strawn and its Geneva office was ranked in the first tier of six law firms recommended in Switzerland for “Dispute Resolution” by the most recent The European Legal 500 (2009 edition).

In its profile of Winston’s Geneva-based international arbitration practice, The European Legal 500 highlights managing partner Marc Palay as both ‘pragmatic’ and ‘flexible,’ and for leading a team “praised for its excellent coordination by clients, and [that] continues to attract the most complex and high-profile arbitrations in Europe, with a case portfolio [in] value close to $1 billion.” The guide notes Winston’s representation in two large arbitration matters for Alumna & Bauxite Company in claims opposing CDH Investment.

In 2008, Winston’s international arbitration practice was ranked No. 21 overall in the Global Arbitration Review’s survey of the top 30 firms practicing in this area worldwide.
