

Campaigns & Elections' Politics Magazine recognizes Winston & Strawn senior chairman Governor James R. Thompson and firm chairman Dan Webb in the April 2010 issue as among the "Top 100 Illinois Influencers."

For the 2010 mid-term elections, Politics Magazine focuses on key states and features select individuals in politics.

Bob Gough at Quincy News oversees the research and compilation of the "Illinois Influencers" list which is comprised of the state's top legal, business and civic leaders.

According to Gough, "I worked with many of my colleagues in Springfield and Chicago to put together this list and many names on it could be subject to serious debate. But the names of Thompson and Webb consistently came up, regardless of who the conversations were with."

Congratulations Gov. Thompson and Dan Webb from everyone at Politics Magazine.
