

International Association of Women Honors Finance Partner Lynn Tanner as Influencer of the Year

MAY 22, 2018

The International Association of Women (IAW), a global networking platform with nearly one million members, has selected Winston New York Finance Partner Lynn Tanner as a 2018-2019 “Influencer of the Year.” Recognized for her leadership in entrepreneurship, IAW praises Lynn as “self-motivated and results-driven to succeed” and “a seasoned professional who has constantly set her goals to keep pace with her highest aspirations for personal excellence.” The organization further notes that “throughout her career, she has exhibited exemplary teamwork, expertise, integrity and dedication.”

Lynn represents a wide range of lenders, including banks and alternative lenders, in connection with both broadly-syndicated and club financings, particularly those involving multiple tranches of debt.

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Locations

New York

Related Topics

Women’s Leadership Initiative

Women of Influence

Top Women Lawyers

Opportunity & Inclusion

Related Capabilities

Finance

Transactions

Debt Finance

Related Professionals

---

Lynn Tanner