

Abbe Lowell to Present at 2018 All Hands Meeting

OCTOBER 15, 2018

Abbe Lowell, co-chair of Winston & Strawn’s White Collar, Regulatory Defense & Investigations Practice, will present at The 30th Annual All Hands Meeting in Santa Clara, CA on October 15, 2018. The All Hands Meeting, presented by the Silicon Valley Association of General Counsel, is a leading event for general counsel, chief legal officers, and senior in-house lawyers at technology companies with significant portfolios of intellectual property.

Abbe will present “Updating Data Law and Procedures—Protection v. Prosecution” as part of the Privacy and Data Security track. He will discuss:

- how the explosion of e-data and increased access to confidential personal information challenges constitutional and legal protections for individuals;
- the newly changing and developing issues defining the roles and jurisdiction that government, private companies, and individuals have in discerning such information; and
- the current tensions between law enforcement and the private sector and what we can expect in the future.

Abbe is one of the nation’s leading white collar defense and trial lawyers and recently named a 2018 National Law Journal Winning Litigator. His practice focuses on litigation, complex investigations, and regulatory enforcement. He has tried civil and criminal cases before judges and juries in more than a dozen states, argued numerous appeals before courts that include the U.S. Supreme Court, led complex international investigations, and navigated clients through congressional and administrative proceedings.
