

Steve Grimes Speaks at China Anti-Corruption Compliance Summit 2018

OCTOBER 26, 2018

Litigation Partner Steve Grimes spoke at the 12th Annual China Anti-Corruption Compliance Summit 2018 on October 26 in Shanghai. The program is focused on enhancing compliance strategies and risk management skills useful for businesses operating around the world.

Steve delivered opening remarks on day two of the summit where he highlighted the increasing compliance risks in China and stressed the importance of effective risk identification and management framework. In addition, Steve joined compliance officers, legal counsel, and auditors for the “Minimizing Risk from Distributors, Vendors, Brokers, and Intermediaries” panel, which discussed topics including:

- What are the key factors of a reliable business partner?
- How to evaluate their compliance performance
- Minimizing associated risks

Steve leads Winston & Strawn’s Asia Litigation practice. His practice focuses on compliance and data security counseling, sensitive internal investigations, government interactions, and complex litigation. He provides practical and tailored advice to companies and Boards seeking to build, improve, and defend compliance programs.

1 Min Read

Related Capabilities

Compliance Programs

Antitrust/Competition

White Collar & Government Investigations

Related Professionals

Steven Grimes