

Winston Sponsors and Steve Antion Speaks at USC Gould School of Law's ICC 2018

DECEMBER 5, 2018

Winston & Strawn Private Equity Partner Steve Antion will speak at USC Gould School of Law's Institute for Corporate Counsel (ICC) on December 5. The Institute brings together over 500 professionals annually for programming focused on Los Angeles' evolving business environment, as well as best practices and changes in the law which can impact business operations. Winston is a sponsor of the event and Private Equity Practice Co-Chair Eva Davis serves on the ICC Board of Governors.

Steve will moderate a panel titled "Developments in Middle Market M&A," which will discuss the latest trends in middle market M&A, including transaction terms relating to risk allocation, non-reliance disclaimers, fraud carve-outs, representation and warranty insurance, CFIUS reviews, data security and privacy, and sexual harassment and workplace violations in the context of M&A transactions. Panelists include Mary Ellen Kanoff, General Counsel Chief Legal Officer Peninsula Pacific, Steven Moon, Managing Director Duff & Phelps, and Richard Tilley, Vice President Secretary General Counsel Foundation Building Materials.

Steve is recognized for providing integrated and holistic counseling to private equity firms, entrepreneurial businesses, and family offices. He has experience advising private companies across a range of industries on complex transactions and governance issues.
