Myriam focuses her practice primarily in the areas of private equity, mergers and acquisitions, and general corporate advice for publicly and privately held companies.

Myriam is an associate in Winston & Strawn's Paris office and a member of the corporate/M&A team. She represents French and foreign companies on mergers, acquisitions, sales, joint ventures, securities transactions, and other general corporate matters. Her experience includes advising on due diligence in the context of acquisition or sale of companies, corporate documentation, and post-closing/follow-up and project management. She also regularly advises clients on day-to-day matters in corporate governance, business entity formation, and commercial contracts.

Prior to joining Winston, Myriam worked in various French and international law firms as well as in the corporate affairs department of a French-listed company.

Her native language is French and she is fluent in English.
