

Tom Melsheimer Speaks at Center for Advocacy & Dispute Resolution Event

FEBRUARY 6, 2019

Dallas Office Managing Partner Tom Melsheimer and Judge Craig Smith, co-authors of On the Jury Trial, discussed principles and practices for effective advocacy at trial at an event presented by the Center for Advocacy & Dispute Resolution. This event was held at the John Marshall Law School in Chicago on February 6, 2019.

Described as “one of the most sought after trial lawyers in the country” by the publishers of The American Lawyer, Tom has remarkably broad and extensive jury trial experience. He has tried civil cases involving patents, antitrust, product liability, oil and gas, and securities fraud and criminal cases involving bank fraud, public corruption, and kidnapping.

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Locations

Dallas

Related Capabilities

Commercial Litigation & Disputes

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Thomas M. Melsheimer