

Ricardo Ugarte Discusses Arbitration Clauses at International Arbitration & Dispute Resolution Symposium

MARCH 1, 2019

On March 1, Partner and Chair of Winston & Strawn's International Arbitration Practice Ricardo Ugarte will speak at the International Arbitration & Dispute Resolution Symposium hosted by Washington University in St. Louis School of Law. The symposium will focus on current developments in the fields of arbitration and dispute resolution, including both commercial and investor-State arbitration.

Ricardo will speak on a panel titled "Drafting Enforceable & Effective International Arbitration Clauses," which will examine the importance of careful drafting and will explore the essential ingredients of an enforceable and effective arbitration agreement, taking into account laws of various jurisdictions that inform the interpretation and enforcement of arbitration clauses.

Register for this event here.

Ricardo is a multilingual partner who focuses his practice on international arbitration, international litigation, and complex commercial litigation. He advises a wide variety of clients, including oil and energy companies, financial institutions, telecoms, pharmaceutical companies, construction companies, and manufacturers in a broad range of international disputes.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Chicago

Related Capabilities

International Arbitration

Related Regions

Related Professionals

Ricardo Ugarte