

Winston & Strawn Paris Office Hosts Two Conferences During Paris Arbitration Week

APRIL 2, 2019

On April 2, Paris International Arbitration Partner Maria Kostytska spoke on two panels in conjunction with ArbitralWomen and Paris Arbitration Week. Winston was a sponsor of the event.

Combining maternity/paternity with a successful career in international arbitration presents a number of challenges. The panelists engaged in a candid discussion as to whether it is possible to “have it all” and how to manage competing and sometimes incompatible demands of parenthood and performance as an advocate, jurist, or arbitrator. Click here for additional information.

In addition, Maria spoke on a panel titled “Annulment and Enforcement of Arbitral Awards against States: Recent Developments and New Trends.” The panelists presented a continental panorama of legal regimes for annulment of arbitral awards in France, Sweden, the Netherlands, and Switzerland, focusing on recent court decisions. They also discussed the legal reform for recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards in Ukraine and highlighted a recent court decision that put it to test. Click here for additional information.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Paris

Related Capabilities

International Arbitration

Related Regions

Europe

Related Professionals

Maria Kostytska