

Internet of Things: Legal Issues, Policy, & Practical Strategies

MARCH 25, 2019

Winston & Strawn Associate Joseph Masullo contributed a chapter titled “5G Wireless Communications: Enabling a New Internet of Things” in the American Bar Association’s (ABA) The Internet of Things (IoT): Legal Issues, Policy, and Practical Strategies. The book features chapters on IoT legal and policy issues by some of the leading authorities and thinkers from government, academia, and private practice.

The book addresses the use of IoT technology, technological developments, the current state of laws and regulations, risks associated with devices, and the impact of the on intellectual property and insurance.

The book is available for purchase here.

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Locations

Washington, DC

Related Topics

Internet of Things (IoT)

ITC

Related Capabilities

ITC – Section 337

Technology, Media & Telecommunications

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Joseph C. Masullo