

Matthew DalSanto Speaks at Class Action Money and Ethics Conference 2019

MAY 6, 2019

Chicago Antitrust/Competition Attorney Matthew DalSanto spoke at the 2019 Class Action Money & Ethics (CAME) Conference in New York on May 6, 2019.

Matthew presented on the “Class Certification Update” panel, which discussed the significance of Rule 23 (a and b) and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure by examining the most pressing cases.

Matthew is a California- and Illinois-licensed attorney and a Ph.D. applied economist. He focuses his practice on the areas of antitrust and unfair competition law, intellectual property law, and the use of economic and statistical analysis in legal matters.

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Locations

Chicago

Related Capabilities

Antitrust/Competition

Class Actions & Group Litigation

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Matt DalSanto