

Winston & Strawn, RSM, and the SBIA Co-Host 2019 SBIC Fund Conference

JUNE 17-18, 2019

Winston & Strawn, RSM, and the SBIA invite general partners, chief financial officers, and controllers of small business investment company (SBIC) funds to a seminar focusing on the operations, licensing, accounting, tax, and compliance issues for SBIC funds. The program will be presented June 17-18 in Winston & Strawn's Chicago office by industry leaders and will cover a variety of topics related to the operations of an SBIC fund, including:

- Structuring investments to comply with Small Business Administration (SBA) regulations
- Trends in licensing for SBIC funds
- Q&A with the SBA
- A panel discussion with SBIC limited partners
- Tax reform: Issues for private equity funds, portfolio companies, and general partners
- Small Business Investor Alliance (SBIA) legislative update

There will also be opportunities for networking with colleagues and peers and earning continuing professional education (CLE) credits.

Register for this event here.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Chicago

Related Capabilities

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Christopher Douglass

Olga Loy

Kate L. Price

Alan Roth