

Winston & Strawn Recognized at P3 Awards 2019

OCTOBER 3, 2019

A Winston & Strawn team was recognized with the Silver Award in the Best Transit Project category at the P3 Awards 2019, for work on the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) AFC 2.0 Project, which was the first project delivered by the MBTA as a public private partnership (PPP or P3) and the first of its kind in the United States. The firm was also shortlisted in the following categories:

- Best Education and Higher Education Project: Purdue University P3 Student Housing Facilities
- Legal Advisor of the Year: Winston & Strawn
- Culture and Diversity Award

Now in its sixth year, the awards recognize companies and organizations involved in public-private partnership projects across Canada, Latin America, and the United States.
