

Winston Sponsors Airline Economics Growth Frontiers Dublin 2020

JANUARY 20, 2020

Winston & Strawn is once again sponsoring Airline Economics Growth Frontiers Dublin 2020. This conference brings together airline and aviation industry professionals from across the world with a focus on finance and leasing.

As part of a cross-jurisdictional group of attorneys attending the event from London, New York, and Washington DC, Litigation Partner Cari Stinebower will be speaking on the panel “Economic Sanctions Developments and Disruptions for the Airline Sector,” which will address the rapidly evolving U.S. economic sanctions regulations as they specifically target global aviation. Topics will include:

- Issues relating to bunkering of aircraft from an M&A and leasing perspective
- Potentially sanctioned Russian-managed airports
- Russia sanctions implications for lease agreements to Russian airlines flying into and out of the Crimea
- Implications for the airline industry flying into or out of Cuba.
