

Eva Cole Speaks on NAWL's Women in Compliance Webinar

FEBRUARY 24, 2020

Winston & Strawn Partner Eva Cole presented on Anti-Bribery / Anti-Corruption (ABAC) Compliance at the National Association of Women Lawyer's (NAWL) Women in Compliance Webinar on February 24, 2020.

This CLE webinar focused on anti-bribery laws, the hallmarks of an effective ABAC compliance program, key ABAC compliance flashpoints, and the potential for the intersection of bribery issues with other compliance areas such as antitrust and sanctions.

Eva is co-chair of the firm's Antitrust/Competition Practice, she focuses her practice on civil antitrust litigation, class actions, and international cartel investigations led by enforcement agencies around the world. She has particularly distinguished experience representing clients in the electronics, financial, and sports industries.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

New York

Related Capabilities

Antitrust/Competition

Litigation/Trials

White Collar & Government Investigations

Compliance Programs

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Eva Cole