

DDTC Measures During COVID-19 Pandemic

MARCH 23, 2020

On March 18, the U.S. State Department's Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTC) posted this notice on its site to inform industry and the public of the measures it is taking to continue service during the current COVID-19 pandemic. DDTC will continue to operate its Licensing, Compliance, Policy, and Management functions with adjustments in accordance with the U.S. Office of Personnel Management's (OPM) guidance along with other agency's guidance. Licensing, Commodity Jurisdiction, and General Correspondence will continue to operate with delays. Enrollment and registration requests are still operating via the DECCS system and are being reviewed on a rolling basis. The DDTC has also established a new option to submit disclosures and related information pursuant to ITAR Section 127.12 via email to DTCC-CaseStatus@state.gov. The Help Desk and Response Team are still running, and the website will continue to provide status updates going forward.

View all of our COVID-19 perspectives here. Contact a member of our COVID-19 Legal Task Force here.

1 Min Read

Author

Cari Stinebower

Related Locations

Washington, DC

Related Topics

COVID-19

Imports/Exports

National Security

International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR)

Related Capabilities

International Trade

Maritime & Admiralty

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Cari Stinebower

This entry has been created for information and planning purposes. It is not intended to be, nor should it be substituted for, legal advice, which turns on specific facts.