

Life As We Know It: Mindset, Habits & Support - An Opportunity Awaits You

MAY 6, 2020

To Kick-Off Lawyer Well-Being Week, ChIPs, a nonprofit organization that advances and connects women in technology, law, and policy, in partnership with Winston & Strawn and Morgan Stanley, co-hosted “Life As We Know It: Mindset, Habits & Support – An Opportunity Awaits You” on May 6.

Burnout comes in many forms and is something many of you have likely experienced at some stage of your life, whether you know it or not. Even if you have not, now that most of us are homebound, this is a perfect time to be more intentional about living. This candid dialogue explored strategies to overcome and avoiding burnout.

Panelists included Senior Vice President, Financial Advisor Teri Kelley, VMware Senior Litigation Counsel Danielle Coleman and Winston’s Silicon Valley Managing Partner Kathi Vidal, and a lively Q&A session moderated by Apple’s Head of Global IP Transactions Sarita Venkat, Deputy General Counsel, IP Group and Chief IP Counsel of Microsoft Jen Yokoyama, and Winston & Strawn Partner Danielle Williams.
