

Health Care Finance: Current Issues, Future Opportunities

JUNE 10, 2020

Our panel of stakeholders in the health care finance space addressed the dynamics of navigating current major issues in the lending environment. The panelists also addressed issues such as what future underwriting may look like, if it changes at all, what the current marketplace for lending transactions looks like, what the future might hold, and other significant issues.

A webinar is a complimentary interactive seminar offered by Winston & Strawn LLP over the Internet. You'll watch and listen to the presentation at your own computer.
