

A Collection of Oddities: Nuances in Class Action Litigation in California

JUNE 17, 2020

Please join Winston & Strawn in the first of a three-part webinar series examining the regional quirks impacting class action litigation. In this segment, Partners Amanda Groves and Gayle Jenkins and Associate Shawn Obi will present a timely discussion of various California-centric class action oddities, including:

- California's Privacy Class Actions: Ready, Set, Litigation
- An Expansive View of Jurisdiction in California: Where is Home?
- Paying Plaintiffs and their Lawyers: Who's Got Their Hand in the Cookie Jar?
- Minimizing Employment Risks and Avoiding California Class and Representative Action Labor and Employment Landmines
- COVID-19 Class Actions: Leading the Charge

Contact Winston & Strawn for more information about this event here.

A webinar is a complimentary interactive seminar offered by Winston & Strawn LLP over the Internet. You'll watch and listen to the presentation at your own computer.
