

Hong Kong's Competition Commission and the Securities and Futures Commission Join Forces to Prevent Anti-Competitive Conduct in the Financial Market

JUNE 16, 2020

Hong Kong's Competition Commission and the Securities and Futures Commission (SFC) recently entered into a memorandum of understanding (MoU) to coordinate their efforts to combat anti-competitive conduct in the financial market.

The MoU outlines the extent of the regulators' cooperation in (1) sharing information; (2) allowing disclosure to the SFC of confidential information about ongoing Competition Commission investigations; and (3) notifying and consulting with each other when considering new policies or guidelines.

It also serves as an important reminder that Hong Kong's regulators will not tolerate anti-competitive behavior in the financial market. Our briefing here describes the key points of the MoU and the takeaways for financial market participants and stakeholders.

1 Min Read

Author

Steven Grimes

Related Topics

Antitrust Intelligence

International Antitrust

Government Enforcement

Related Capabilities

Antitrust/Competition

Related Regions

Related Professionals

Steven Grimes

This entry has been created for information and planning purposes. It is not intended to be, nor should it be substituted for, legal advice, which turns on specific facts.