

Winston Represents Cubico Sustainable Investments in IJGlobal's Best Renewables Portfolio Deal of the Year for North America

JULY 15, 2020

Winston & Strawn served as legal counsel to Cubico Sustainable Investments in connection with IJGlobal Awards' Best Renewables Portfolio Deal of the Year for North America, in the acquisition from Cypress Creek Renewables of a 366 MW portfolio of three solar projects in South Carolina and Texas, and the related tax equity and debt financings. The team was led by Partner Jonathan Birenbaum. Additional core team members included Associate Mark Christy.

Winston was also shortlisted in the North America Legal Advisor of the Year and Latin America Legal Advisor of the Year (International) categories.

The IJGlobal Awards celebrate the best-in-class transactions to have closed over the past calendar year, across the international infrastructure and energy sectors, while recognizing the organizations that play central roles in these deals. Valued for their rigorous selection process, and working in partnership with industry experts, the IJGlobal Awards recognize excellence in the delivery of challenging deals.
