

SBIC Limited Partners—Past, Present, and Future

SEPTEMBER 16, 2020

The United States' small businesses are facing unprecedented economic disruption as a result of the COVID-19 outbreak. The pandemic's negative impact on the global economy is creating market volatility and decimating multiple industries and companies.

On September 16, Winston & Strawn Partner Alan Roth hosted a panel of highly-experienced limited partners on the impact of COVID-19 on small business investment companies (SBIC) and the future of SBIC investments. Panelists included Carl Kopfinger, TD Bank; Sean McGuire, Fifth Third Bank; Carl Jenkins, BMO Harris Bank; Nate Kirk, Everside Capital Partners; Tim Rafalovich, Wells Fargo Strategic Capital; and Eric Rosiak, B. Riley FBR.
