

Rachel A. McCauley

Associate

San Francisco
+1 415-591-1577

Rachel assists teams in many phases of the litigation life cycle, including removal of cases to federal courts, motions to dismiss, motions to lift litigation stays, discovery motions, motions for summary judgment, and daubert motions, and has achieved a full dismissal with prejudice for a fraud case..

Rachel focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation and antitrust. She litigates in both California state court and federal court.

Prior to joining the firm, she served as a judicial intern at both federal and state courts. She was a Judicial Intern to the Honorable Charles P. Kocoras in the Northern District of Illinois, where she drafted orders relating to matters within civil litigation. She was also a Judicial Intern to the Honorable Steven K. Austin in Contra Costa Superior Court, where she conducted legal research, wrote rulings and memoranda, and assisted the judge in motion hearings. Prior to law school, Rachel worked as a litigation paralegal in boutique firms specializing in products liability.

Activities

Rachel is a member of the Bar Association of San Francisco.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Rachel received her J.D. from The University of Chicago Law School in 2020, where she was the Director of Social and Wellness Programming for Law Women’s Caucus and an Events Coordinator for the California Law Students Association. She received her B.A. with honors in Business Economics and Psychology from The University of California, Santa Barbara in 2011.

ADMISSIONS

- California

Related Insights & News

Rachel spoke at the Law Women Nationwide Leadership Retreat in Chicago in October 2018. She was a session leader and gave a presentation on mental health, wellness, and strategies for work-life balance in the legal profession.

SEMINAR/CLE

ChIPs Accelerator — Breaking Barriers: Pioneering Innovation, Driving Success

JANUARY 11, 2024

BLOG

Ephemeral Messaging and Permanent Consequences: How Google Was Sanctioned for Failure to Preserve Chat Communications

APRIL 18, 2023

BLOG

Bipartisan Efforts to Strengthen State Antitrust Enforcement Gather Steam

JUNE 17, 2021