

George Mastoris Presents on Federal Bar Council's Virtual Mediation Advocacy Training

OCTOBER 16, 2020

Winston & Strawn New York Partner George Mastoris will present on the Federal Bar Council's Section 1983 Mediation Advocacy Training, E.D.N.Y. being held virtually on October 16, 2020. This training is for attorneys who wish to provide limited scope pro bono representation for the purpose of mediation in civil rights matters arising under Section 1983. The training will include an overview of federal constitutional claims including wrongful arrest, excessive use of force, and claims involving conditions of confinement. This program will also discuss techniques for working with incarcerated clients and provide tips for representing these parties in the mediation context.
