

Winston Partners Speak at SFNet's 76th Annual Convention

NOVEMBER 17-19, 2020

Winston & Strawn Partners Jordan Klein and Bill Brewer spoke at SFNet's 76th Annual Convention.

On November 18, Jordan Klein spoke on a panel titled "Confronting Industry Legal Issues: from a Business Person's Perspective in a Bad Economy," which covered best practices for mitigating risk through legal documentation.

Bill Brewer spoke on "SFNet's Cross-Border Lending Summit Presents: Canadian Potpourri" on November 19. This panel looked at to what extent Canada is seeing true cross-collateralization in light of 956, as well as a deep dive into provincial items.

SFNet is an annual event that offers attendees insights into international lending, healthcare financing, diversity and inclusion, business development, bank and non-bank abl, risk management, new "norms" in the workplace, capital markets, advocacy and regulatory changes, supply chain disruption, asset valuations, fintech, and so much more.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Dallas

New York

Related Capabilities

Transactions

Finance

Financial Services

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Jordan Klein

William Brewer