

Winston Sponsors & Speaks at LACBA's Racial Justice Series

OCTOBER 29, 2020

Winston & Strawn is pleased to sponsor the Los Angeles County Bar Association's (LACBA) Racial Justice Speaker Series. The first program, "Racial Justice: Where Do We Start?," will take place virtually on October 29.

Members of the LACBA and the general public are invited to join prominent members of the Los Angeles community to discuss issues of racial justice in the legal system, policing, and the larger community. This candid discussion is designed to broaden the audience's perspectives and help each of us better advocate for racial justice and equality.
