

Kathi Vidal Speaks at Sedona Working Group 10 2020 Meeting on Patent Litigation Best Practices

NOVEMBER 19, 2020

On November 19, Kathi Vidal, managing partner of Winston & Strawn's Silicon Valley office, spoke on a panel titled "Streamlining Lower-Value Patent Cases" with Judge Alan D Albright at the 2020 Sedona Conference Working Group 10 (WG10) on Patent Litigation Best Practices. Kathi is also the chair of WG10. This year's meeting was held virtually in conjunction with the Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies.

Additional panels included:

- The Role of Patents in Biopharma v. High-Tech Industries: How Can One Patent System Effectively Accommodate Both?
- Unique Problems and Opportunities Posed by Global Patent Litigation
- The Global Implications of Standard-Essential Patent (SEP) and Fair, Reasonable, and Non-Discriminatory (FRAND) Litigation
- The Evolving Relationship Between Federal Courts and Administrative Agencies
- Judicial Roundtable
