

Economic Sanctions 2021: What to Expect from the New Administration

NOVEMBER 13, 2020

On November 13, Winston & Strawn Partner Cari Stinebower joined ACAMS U.S. Capital Chapter's panel titled "Economic Sanctions 2021: What to Expect from the New Administration." The discussion touched on likely changes to the U.S. programs on Iran, North Korea, Venezuela, Russia, and China, as well as provided insight into how financial institutions and corporations are preparing to address new regulatory risks in 2021. Panelists also addressed recent shifts in compliance expectations, including supply chain risk management, the maritime sector, and in M&A activity.

Visit Winston's U.S. Election / Global Impact series for more cross-border perspectives.

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Locations

Washington, DC

Related Capabilities

International Trade

Financial Services

Maritime & Admiralty

Related Regions

North America

Asia

Middle East & Africa

Related Professionals

Cari Stinebower