

A Day in the Life of a Big Law Attorney with Columbia University and Winston & Strawn

DECEMBER 4, 2020

Winston & Strawn recently hosted a recruiting Q&A with Columbia Law School for prospective summer associates titled “A Day in the Life of a Big Law Attorney.” The virtual panel was made up of current Winston & Strawn attorneys who attended Columbia Law.

The group provided valuable insights into life at Winston and relevant topics including how to decide which practice groups to consider when moving toward specialization, the most challenging aspects of their work, which firm resources they would recommend to new associates, and how their career goals have changed.
