

Effectively Communicating With Jurors In A Patent Case – Perspectives From The Judge, The Trial Lawyer And The Jury Consultant

DECEMBER 16, 2020

On December 16, Winston & Strawn, Magna Legal Services, and Berkeley Center for Law & Technology (BCLT) hosted a timely webinar titled “Effectively Communicating With Jurors In A Patent Case – Perspectives From The Judge, The Trial Lawyer And The Jury Consultant.”

Attendees got an exclusive look at how some of the most experienced litigators navigate effective juror communication. This insightful and entertaining conversation was moderated by a former Winston & Strawn Partner and featured a panel of true insiders including:

- Judge Alan D Albright - District Court Judge, Western District of Texas
- Tom Melsheimer - Dallas Managing Partner, Winston & Strawn
- Matt Powers - Partner, Tensegrity Law Group
- Rachel York Colangelo, Ph.D. - National Managing Director Jury Consulting, Magna Legal Services
- Peter Hecht (Host) - Partner & Executive VP of Sales, Magna Legal Services

Watch the presentation here.

For more insights visit our WacoWatch blog post here. The presentation was also featured on Law.com here and Law360 here.

1 Min Read

---

Related Locations

Dallas

Los Angeles

Related Capabilities

---

Patent Litigation

Litigation/Trials

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

---

Thomas M. Melsheimer